HCJB Global

Serving with Global Partners As the Voice and Hands of Jesus

HCJB Global began in 1931 in Quito, Ecuador as the world's first missionary radio station. In the 1950's, hospitals were built in Quito and Shell, Ecuador. Since then, HCJB Global's ministry has expanded to over 100 countries around the globe.

Its media ministry provides equipment, training, programming, and support for partner radio stations. By 2011 HCJB Global partners expanded to nearly 400 stations. Millions heard the gospel via AM, FM, shortwave, satellite, and internet broadcasts.

Hundreds of thousands also received medical services. In addition to its hospitals, HCJB Global's health care ministry includes mobile medical clinics, urban family clinics, disaster relief, clean water projects, and training of health care providers.

Equipping local pastors and leaders through leadership, theological, and cross-cultural training is a more recent ministry of HCJB Global.

Serving with
in Quito, Ecuador

How can a CPA and a Homemaker
use their skills to help share Jesus’
love outside the United States?

Our Story

Jody became a Christian at a young age, while Scott was an atheist until after he returned from a Peace Corps assignment in Ghana, West Africa. We met and married, settling in Springfield, Oregon where we raised and home-schooled five “kids,” now between 20 to 30 years old.

About ten years ago, God gave us a desire to volunteer during our 60’s with a Christian mission organization.

Our Decision

After a year-long search and a three-week visit to Ecuador, we said, “Yes” to HCJB Global’s offer of positions in its regional office in Quito, Ecuador. Scott will serve in finance and Jody in personnel. We are excited to serve not only HCJB Global missionaries and national employees, but also the thousands of people touched by HCJB Global’s ministries in Latin America.

Building Our Support Team

We are now missionary appointees, sharing our dreams with others, and seeking to discover those whom God is preparing as prayer and financial ministry partners.

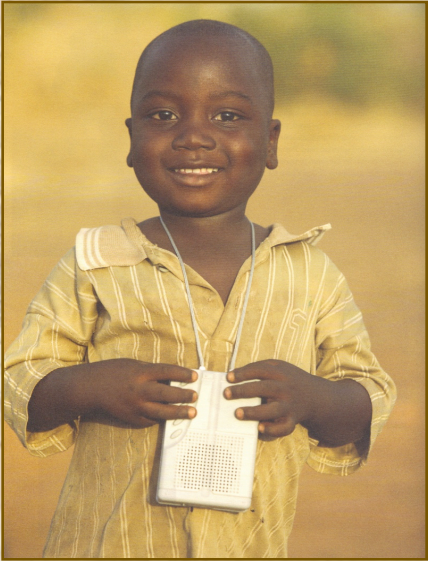

Before we can serve in Ecuador, HCJB Global must have pledges for 100% of our monthly support and receive 100% of our start-up expenses.

Monthly Support: $5,100

- 33% Salary
- 21% Housing
- 23% Healthcare
- 8% Social Security
- 5% Retirement
- 10% Administrative Costs

Start-Up Expenses $58,000

- 13% Cross-Cultural Training (5 wks)
- 7% Air Fare & Immigration
- 45% Language School (8 months)
- 9% Housing Set Up
- 9% First Month’s Support
- 17% Admin Costs + Contingency

*“We have a significant need in our administrative area that both Scott and Jody can help fill. As a CPA myself, I know how important it is to have good accountability. Scott, with 31 years of experience in auditing, will bring so much to our organization.

But even greater than their professionalism is their desire to follow God’s calling on their lives to join us in ministry.

I believe God will use people like you to join up as partners with the Arnolds to get them from Oregon to Ecuador. Thank you for your support of the Arnolds.”

Dan Shedd, Executive Director, Latin America Region
